

What Other's Are Saying About Us:

"Initially the college engaged Rose Consulting to complete an audit of its telephone bills, but we have quickly come to regard your staff as a trusted source of information and guidance in any telecommunications related matters. Everyone that we have dealt with from your company has been capable, customer-oriented and extremely pleasant."

-Harrisburg Area Community College

"I want to thank your staff that performed the telecommunications and utility audit for JDK Management Company and the other 60+ facilities that we manage. As a result of the audit one of the properties of an affiliate company of JDK Management Company received a refund of $39,500.44."

-JDK Management Company

"Rose Consulting, Inc. representatives reduced our annual long distance cost and we received a refund in our long distance service. Rose Consulting personnel is very professional and a joy to work with. I would recommend all school districts to consider Rose Consulting, Inc for an audit of their telecommunications.

-Benton Area School District

On behalf of PHI I would like to than you for the services that Rose Consulting has provided. We were impressed with your level of commitment to this project as well as the tenacity you displayed in retrieving refunds. Every member of your team was knowledgeable and cooperative and was able to give us an understanding of the process as we worked through some complex issues. The annual savings we will recognize far surpassed our expected outcome."

Specializing in Telecommunications, Data and Utility Cost Auditing

Rose Consulting, Inc. is an independent telecommunications, data and utility cost auditing firm. We provide an accurate report detailing all costs followed by unbiased recommendations for savings with only our client's interests in mind. Our audit services are contingency based, meaning, if there is no recovery or savings there is no cost to our client.

Rose Consulting Expertise Insures The Highest Possible Savings

- Rose Consulting audits local and long distance service, internet, data, cellular and utility bills.
- Rose Consulting is totally independent. We do not represent any phone or service provider.
- We do all initial auditing on a contingency basis – no recoveries, no savings means no cost.
- No billing occurs until all refunds and savings are verified and delivered
- We provide each auditing client with a detailed written report of findings and recommendations.
- No changes are made without client approval. We ask that the client sign off on each specific recommendation prior to our implementation.
- We will fight for our clients' refunds and credits due to them.

No Recovery or Savings—No Cost
Recoveries & Savings— Still No Cost
Those recoveries and savings pay our fees and
PUTS MONEY BACK INTO YOUR BUDGET!!!!

HAVING ROSE CONSULTING REVIEW YOUR
TELECOMMUNICATION,
DATA AND UTILITY BILLING WILL SAVE YOU TIME AND MONEY!!

Rose Consulting works to keep our client's involvement during the audit minimal so that they may continue to focus on their job at hand.

Rose Consulting does this by:

- Gathering and collecting the information
- Inventorying and creating lists of the telecommunication services
- Analyzing the data in-depth
- Verifying that telecommunications services are actually being used and billed correctly
- Contacting and working with the telecommunications and utility vendors
- Working on correcting billing errors, following up to make sure corrections have been implemented and pursuing recoveries of past overcharges
